What personal information we collect

Profile Information

We collect information from you when your email address and additional demographic information is provided by you on the E-bulletin subscription form.

We also hold publicly available contact and location information about our members.

However, you are able to browse any publicly accessible sections of this website completely anonymously without signing up.

Usage Information

Only anonymous information is gathered by the server maintained by the website provider. This information includes numbers of visitors to the site, pages visited, documents downloaded, etc., and you remain unidentifiable.

How we use the information we collect

We collect this information in order to:

- analyse and interpret it to help meet our objectives and obligations
- communicate information to you about engagement opportunities, events, and other initiatives
- respond to enquiries and otherwise engage with stakeholders.

External links

Our website may contain links to other websites. These links are provided for your convenience and may not necessarily be up-to-date. We are not responsible for the privacy practices of linked websites, and we suggest you review the privacy policies of those websites before using them.

Security

While no online service is completely secure, we work very hard to protect information about you against unauthorized access, use, alteration, or destruction, and take all reasonable measures to do so.

Requesting access or correcting your personal information

Subject to applicable local laws and regulations, you may have some or all of the following rights with respect to your personal data:

- to access your personal data and to rectify any inaccuracies within that personal data
- to request for the erasure of your personal data held by us
- to request your personal data in portable, machine-readable format
- to withdraw your consent to our processing of your personal data.

If you have a request relating to personal information we hold about you, please contact us using the details set out below, including your name. We may need to verify your identity before providing you with your personal information.

We will deal with all requests for access to personal information within a reasonable timeframe.
